

Historical Museum wins grant to digitize recordings

The Washington Women's History Consortium has awarded the San Juan Historical Museum $5,000 to digitize women's history tapes in the museum's collection.

Vikky Dauciunas was the primary writer of the grant and will be doing the digitization.

Dauciunas is owner of Vikkyd Productions, Inc., a multimedia production company (www.vikkyd.com). She produces video tributes, video scrapbooks, video promotions, and video memoirs.
